CLASS DESCRIPTIONS

Predance 1 & 2 : (ages 3 – 6 yrs.)

This class is a wonderful introduction to the basics of classical ballet and tap technique. Through creative movement the student will use the power of their imagination to move and develop their motor skills.

Beginning Dance 1 : (a progression of Predance 2)

It's a class for the young dancer not yet in first grade. Students will advance and build on the basics.

Dance 1, 2 & 3 : (grades 1-4)

In these classes the student will develop a strong foundation of classical ballet and tap technique. Ballet warm-up begins at the barre and progresses to the center to learn age-appropriate ballet steps, including turns and jumps. Tap begins with a warm-up followed by a series of tap steps which progress to tap combinations, with an emphasis on clean tap sounds and the development of rhythm.

Dance 4 : Prerequisite: Dance 3 or permission of instructor.

Attendance twice a week is recommended.

This class consists of ballet, tap and jazz. The focus for all three disciplines is clean technique while developing a love of the art forms.

Dance 5 : Prerequisite: Dance 4 or permission of instructor.

Attendance twice a week is required (one ballet & one tap/jazz class)

Dance 6 : Prerequisite: Dance 5 or permission of instructor.

Two ballet classes and one tap/jazz class per week is recommended. Dance 6 is designed to facilitate the transition into the more advanced levels of ballet, tap, and jazz.

Jr. Ballet 3 & 4: Prerequisite: Enrollment in Dance 3 or 4

An extra ballet class for dancers in 3rd or 4th grade.

Ballet 1: Prerequisite: Dance 5 & 6 or permission of instructor

This class emphasizes placement, extension, and clean, graceful ballet technique. Students will develop a greater ballet vocabulary while building flexibility, strength, fluidity, and balance. It is at this level that the student may go on pointe.

Ballet 2 : Prerequisite: Ballet 1 or permission of instructor

This class is a progression of Ballet 1 and includes pointe work.

Ballet 3 : Prerequisite: Ballet 2 or permission of instructor

Pointe : Prerequisite: Ballet 1, 2, or 3, or permission of instructor. Participation in 2 ballet classes per week is also required.

Adult Ballet :

This class provides the student with classical ballet training in a comfortable atmosphere. You will feel inspired as you dance to classical music. Ballet will increase muscle strength, flexibility, improves balance, and is a beautiful and graceful way to move.

Jazz 1 : Prerequisite: Dance 5 & 6 or permission of instructor

This class is designed to teach basic jazz steps and clean jazz technique. The class starts with a jazz warm-up and progresses to the center for turns, leaps, and challenging jazz combinations.

Jazz 2 : Prerequisite: Jazz 1 or permission of instructor

This class is a progression of Jazz 1.

Jazz 3 : Prerequisite: Jazz 2 or permission of instructor

Tap 1: Prerequisite: Dance 5 & 6 or permission of instructor

In this class, we build on our technical tap foundation and introduce more difficult and challenging steps and combinations. The emphasis will be on clean tap sounds and the development of rhythm.

Tap 2 : Prerequisite: Tap 1 or permission of instructor

Tap 3 : Prerequisite: Tap 2 or permission of instructor

Teen Combo:

A combination of ballet, tap, & jazz for young teens.

Modern 1: Prerequisite: Dance 5 or permission of instructor

This class explores a basic knowledge of various modern techniques. Modern dance is grounded and involves being off center with a ballet base. It is done barefoot and includes individual expression within the movement.

Modern 2 : Prerequisite: Ballet 1 or permission of instructor

A more advanced level of modern dance which requires more performance and control of the body's center. We explore weight sharing techniques and partner work while continuing major modern dance styles.

Modern 3 : A progression of Modern 2.

DANCE CENTER OF KIRKWOOD INSTRUCTORS:

Kathleen Massot, owner of the Dance Center of Kirkwood and founder/artistic director of Dance Concert Society of Kirkwood, a non-profit dance company, has an extensive background in performance and teaching. As a young girl, she performed in the children's chorus of the St. Louis Municipal Opera and then spent 9 years with the St. Louis

Civic Ballet. She performed at the International Festival of Youth Orchestration in Aberdeen, Scotland, and at the Saddlers Wells Theatre in London, England. Kathy attended the National Academy of Arts and danced professionally with The National Ballet of Illinois. After moving to New York City, she danced with the Leon Felder Dance Company. She danced with the Laura Dean Dancers and Musicians, and soon became their co-rehearsal director. While in Laura Dean's Company, Kathy taught at the University of Iowa and at the University of California. In 1987 Kathy performed in the AIDS benefit at the Lincoln Center with Master of Ceremonies, Mikhail Baryshnikov. She has performed at the American Dance Festival at Duke University in North Carolina and throughout the United States in many theaters, including City Center, The Joyce Theatre, and The Lincoln Center. She also performed throughout Europe with a total of three extensive tours.

Kathy teaches ballet, pointe, tap, and jazz at Dance Center of Kirkwood, and her dancers have won many awards in local competitions. She has also won Best Choreographer

Awards. Her students were chosen to perform in Dance St. Louis Spring Festival at the Edison Theatre for three years. Kathy has taken choreographic composition classes at Webster University and was also a docent for the Educational Impact program for Dance St. Louis.

Dance Center Of Kirkwood
Celebrating Over 35 Years!

Wendy Ballard holds a BFA in Dance from Webster University, an MA in American Culture Studies (with a focus on American dance and performance) from Washington University, and is a licensed massage therapist. Her future plans include pursuing her PhD with a focus on the history of American percussive dance and the role it continues to play in social and political speech and protest, as well as starting a tap company this year. Wendy has performed and taught dance for over two decades around the greater St. Louis area and Austin, Texas and currently teaches tap courses at Washington University and the YMCA. She approaches classes with a mixture of strict technical focus and encouragement of individual expression. Wendy enjoys a good joke and has a dog named Ruby.

Meredith Metzger began dancing at age four and soon joined the Dance Center. She participated in the NSAL ballet competition and performed with Les Grands Ballets Canadiens. Meredith received her B.F.A. in Ballet Performance and her B.A. in Journalism/Public Relations from the University of Oklahoma. She performed with the Oklahoma Festival Ballet in The Nutcracker, Swan Lake, Carmina Burana, Young Choreographers Showcase, The Nutcracker with the Kansas City Ballet in the Snow and Flower Corps., and has worked for the Kansas City Ballet doing public relations & marketing. She was a principal dancer with the Dance Center of Kirkwood in The Nutcracker and has taught ballet, tap, and jazz for the Dixie Bell Dance Center in Shawnee, Kansas and taught ballet at the Kansas City Ballet School.

Erin Warner Prange was born and raised in Webster Groves, MO where she trained at the Dance Center of Kirkwood. She earned her BFA in dance and Spanish from Colorado State University and her Masters of Fine Arts in Arts Management from Webster University. In 2006, Erin taught dance for the Boston public school district through the Topf Center for Dance Education, and danced with Fusionworks II in Providence, RI. After moving back to St. Louis, she worked for aTrek Dance Collective's Education Program, and worked as head coach of the dance team and color guard at Webster Groves High School. Erin was a company member of the Slaughter Project, under artistic direction of Cecil Slaughter for 4 years before being hired by The Big Muddy Dance Company in 2011. Now in her 5th season as a company member, she serves as the executive director of The Big Muddy and spends her time raising funds and awareness for the company when she is not dancing.

Chiao Shih a Dance Center of Kirkwood alumna, has been a member of our teaching staff since 2005. A member of DCOK's ballet ensemble for over fifteen years, she has participated in numerous local and national dance competitions. She has taken master classes taught by notable Webster and Washington University professors, including ballet masters from the Alonzo King's Line Ballet and the Houston Ballet. Chiao was a company member with the not-for-profit dance company, The Dance Concert Society of Kirkwood, under the artistic direction of Kathleen Massot. She has also performed with the Slaughter Project, a St. Louis-based modern dance company founded by Cecil Slaughter; studied and performed with Pilobolus Too and was one of the few chosen to perform in their Cirque du Ballet Gala. Her most notable role includes the Sugar Plum Fairy in the DCOK's annual production of The Nutcracker. She also teaches ballet, tap & tumbling at the Faith Academy of Montessori in Webster Groves and holds a B.A. degree in International Business with an emphasis in Management from the University of Missouri-St. Louis.

Kimberly Stevens of Bradenton, Florida received her early training at Diane Partington Studio of Classical Ballet. She then trained year round in the preprofessional program with Miami City Ballet School. Kimberly performed in George Balanchine's Swan Lake as well as George Balanchine's Serenade. Kimberly spent three summers training with Pacific Northwest Ballet School. In her professional career she danced with Sarasota Ballet in their trainee program. She was also a Richmond Ballet II member performing Lead Flower in Nutcracker, Fiancé and Swans in Swan Lake, Malcolm Burn's Classical Symphony and Georgia Girl in Val Caniparoli's Djangology. Before dancing with Missouri Ballet Theatre Kimberly danced with Ballet San Antonio. While with Missouri Ballet Theatre, she has performed Brides in Dracula, Sea Snakes in Little Mermaid, and Spanish and Chinese in Nutcracker. Kimberly teaches ballet, pre pointe, pointe, & conditioning.

Jane Tichy is an alumni of the Dance Center of Kirkwood and danced three years with the Dance Concert Society of Kirkwood. Jane danced with the Dance Center of Kirkwood in the annual Nutcracker performance for five years and was the Snow Queen in her last performance. After graduating high school, Jane tried out and was accepted to Webster University's Dance Program and is currently pursuing her BFA in Dance, Ballet. Jane has taken advantage of many master classes under Michael Simms, Alicia Graf Mack, and Michael Uthoff among others. Jane was one of the students accepted into the first ever Student Elevate Project with the Big Muddy Dance Company. She expects to graduate in Spring 2020 and dreams of not only dancing professionally, but choreographing and teaching dance.

Carly Vanderheyden is a recent graduate from the University of Iowa, where she earned a B.F.A. in Dance, a B.A. in Health and Human Physiology - Health Promotion, and certificate in Arts Entrepreneurship. Carly is a certified teacher with the ABT National Training Curriculum for pre-primary ballet through level three. She is currently an apprentice with the Big Muddy Dance Company and is also a 200-hour Yoga certified teacher. When she is not dancing herself, Carly is continually growing her freelance photography business.

Corinne Weber is originally from Crescent Springs, Kentucky, and recently graduated with a Bachelor in Fine Arts from Wright State University. There she performed works by Dwight Rhoden, Crystal Michelle-Perkins, and Gina Walther. While in school Corinne also danced with Dayton Contemporary Dance Company II. She was also a part of the Complexions Contemporary Ballet Pre-Professional Program in the Fall of 2017. There she worked with Desmond Richardson, Dwight Rhoden, Jae Man Joo, and Ido Tadmor, performing their pieces at the Joyce Theater. Corinne is currently a trainee at the Big Muddy Dance Company for their 2018-2019 season.
